EARLE'S "AFFINITY"

QUITS BETHLEHEM.
Curious Explanations Drive Miss Kuttner to Leave for New York.

Bethlehem, N. H., Sept. 21.—The family of Miss Kuttner, artist Earle's "affinity," have departed from their summer place in Bethlehem for their home in New York. Earle having left for the metropolis last night. To friends they stated their intention of returning next summer.

The two Kuttner brothers, their younger sister and the young woman cousin of the family appeared in the last of the family.

Miss Kuttner and her mother drove quietly to Bethlehem Junction, there to take the New York train.

It is understood that the family left a little earlier than intended, owing to the presence of hundreds of excursionists in town. These have visited the grounds at the home since arriving a day or two ago, and the curious inspection proved annoying to Mrs. Kuttner.

CHICAGO KINDERGARTEN

TEACHER SLAIN IN BED

Mrs. Lillian White Grant Found Choked to Death.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Lillian White Grant, a kindergarten teacher in the Chicago public schools, was found murdered in bed yesterday in her home at 5520 Madison avenue. The room showed signs of a struggle, and around the woman's throat was a tightly twisted piece of linen with which she had been choked to death.

Mrs. Grant's pocketbook, rifled of its contents, was found, later in the day, in the office of a physician, fifty feet distant from the house in which she lived. The police are looking for a negro who had chafed around the neighborhood.

E. A. SUNDERLIN

Is a Well-Known Driver Throughout This Section.

E. A. Sunderlin, who according to a news despatch published in The Times on Wednesday, was seriously hurt and perhaps fatally at Steubenville, Ohio, is well known in Barre, where he has driven many horses in the past.

Several years ago he had charge of Ned Bailey's horses and used to drive "Susan" and "E. E. Knott" and other horses. Since leaving here he has forged rapidly to the front as a driver, until he held the reins over Angus Pointer, called the fastest race horse in the world. He had charge of Whitney's string of horses at Lebanon. His many friends in this city hope that his accident will not prove as serious as expected.

Sunderlin has been in the employ of George E. Whitney of Enfield, N. H., for four years, and his success has been such as to command attention from turkmen the country over, having to date won more races this season than any driver out racing, some 37 firsts in all.

His highest surprise of the year was at Syracuse, when he headed the summary of the racing stake with Jennie W. in fast time over some of the best pacers in that class. Again last Monday he repeated with Jennie W. at Columbus in the 2:07 class for $3,000 over Kruger, Allen Wilson, etc., and the time of the initial heat was 2:04 1/2.

Sunderlin was born in Chateaugay, N. Y., and is 40 years old. He began training and driving horses when 18. In the eighties he migrated to Vermont and followed the two-lap rings through this state with indifferent success till 1890, when he engaged with J. E. Bailey of Montpelier, and prosperity began coming his way, as among the horses he raced and marked in the next three seasons were Johnny Knott, 2:11 1/4, The Governor, 2:18 1/4, etc.

Fifteen years ago Sunderlin was seriously injured in a race at White River Junction, and for many years after he was obliged to wear around his body a harness to support his spine. In that accident he hovered between life and death for more than a week.

TOM JOHNSON IS

BEATING BURTON

Indications are That The Congressman Has Tackled Job That is Too Big For Him.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Washington is giving no end of attention to the municipal battle royal in Cleveland, in which Representative Theodore E. Burton is trying to defeat Tom L. Johnson for mayor. This contest has drawn the attention of politicians here from the very outset, and will undoubtedly do so until its close, since national politics of large importance, at least to one party and possibly to both, hangs upon the results. The more the contest is studied the stranger and less explainable some phases of it appear.

Why Representative Burton was led into this contest is something his best friends say they cannot understand. It is beyond question that many of his warmest admirers advised him not to go into it, but he disregarded their advice. It has been believed here from the outset that Burton would have an uphill fight to defeat Johnson, and the most recent advice on the situation indicates this is true. In fact, the prospects for Burton's defeat at this stage of the campaign are such that political friends of his from Cleveland who have been in Washington this week say he will be beaten, and the chances are decidedly with Johnson.

Mr. Burton, who never was a master hand at politics, appears to have been used for the purpose of pulling out of the fire the chestnuts of the traction interests in Cleveland. This is what friends of his who advised him to keep out of the mayoralty say.

WOMAN TORTURED

UNTIL SHE DIED.

Then Leader in Faith Undertook to Bring Her Back Again to Life.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 21.—Five persons, members of the sect of Parhamites, are under arrest in Zion City, accused of torturing to death Mrs. Letitia Greenbaugh, 64 years old, to show their belief in the religion they profess.

Those under arrest are Walter and Jennie Greenbaugh, the son and daughter of the woman; Harold Mitchell, Mrs. Harold Mitchell and a Mrs. Smith. All of them are accused of manslaughter. Mrs. Greenbaugh had been for 20 years suffering from paralysis and rheumatism.

The Parhamites believe in dislodging possession of the body by evil spirits. The condition of Mrs. Greenbaugh convinced those under arrest that she must be possessed of the devil, and they undertook to exorcise the evil spirit. The arms of Mrs. Greenbaugh, stiffened by rheumatism, were jerked and twisted, and she was twisted until she shrieked with pain. The five worked over the victim until she died.

After that, according to Greenbaugh, Mrs. Smith became the leader in a "resurrection scene," in an attempt to restore the woman to life.

DELAYS WEDDING

TO LOOK UP GROOM.

Connecticut Widow Investigates Stories About the Man She Was to Wed.

Willimantic, Ct., Sept. 21.—Pending the report of a committee of friends who have undertaken to investigate certain stories that have reached her ears within the past few days, Mrs. Adeline Mason, a comely young widow of this place, has recalled temporarily the invitations which she had sent out for her wedding to William Clements today.

Clements, who, it is said, asserts that he is a cousin of Mark Twain, lives in North Woodstock, Vt., and to facilitate their inquiries the members of the committee have left here for that town.

CANNERS WANT MORE TIME

Declare the New Pure Food Law Confiscatory

NEW CONSULS INSTRUCTED

By State Department—Great Interest in the Lake to the Gulf Waterway—Peonage in North Carolina Is Decreasing.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—Canners of foodstuffs were heard Thursday by the board of food and drug inspection against the regulation for the enforcement of the food and drug act, which provides that the rules in regard to labels shall go into effect after Oct. 1 next. The regulation requires that after that date the principal label used on any package or can shall state the substance of the package and the name of place of manufacture. This regulation has been extended from time to time, and canners now want a further extension, canners represent at the hearing asserting that they had half a million dollars' worth of labels on hand which will be worthless if the regulation becomes effective at this time. These concerns declared the law to be confiscatory. The board will submit its recommendations to the secretary of agriculture.

Training the New Consuls.

In a miniature consular office in the state department, modeled after those of the United States in foreign countries, candidates who passed the last examination to establish an eligible list from which to fill vacancies in that service are receiving instruction as to their new duties. Establishment of this consular school is another step by the department to make its consuls active business agents, useful to the government and the country. Formerly an appointee was given thirty days' leave under pay in which to prepare to go to his post. By the new procedure this thirty days will be spent here, under instruction which will enable him to take up his work, familiar, at least, with the manner in which the work of a consular office should be conducted.

Interest in Lakes to Gulf Waterway.

According to John Barrett, director of the bureau of American republics, the people of the middle west are manifesting great enthusiasm over the possibilities that the Panama canal will have a navigable waterway from the lakes to the gulf, would open to them. Mr. Barrett, who has just returned from that region, says that even in rural communities the people are alive to these possibilities, and they will demand from their representatives in the next Congress some action toward obtaining this outlet for their products. "It is these people," said Mr. Barrett, "who make the material that the people of Latin-America want. The greatest demand, for instance, is for machinery. The middle west manufactures greater amounts of farm machinery than any other section of the world. The bulk of this is now sent to the Atlantic seaboard, and from there shipped to South America. The buyers pay more for it, and the producers make less profit than if it were sent direct and the long and expensive hauls were avoided."

MYSTERY IN GIRL'S DEATH

IN HOME OF MILLIONAIRE.

Beautiful Artist's Body Found in Boarded-Up New York Mansion.

New York, Sept. 21.—That Mrs. Margaret Carter, mysteriously shot dead at millionaire John J. White, Jr.'s East Fifty-Seventh street home early yesterday, was a suicide the coroner's officers say there is no doubt. The shooting occurred about 4 a. m. White summed a physician, who found the woman dead. The house was boarded up for the summer, but White had slept there, as he did frequently.

His wife arrived from Bar Harbor just as Mrs. Carter's body was being removed. The investigation shows that Mrs. Carter occupied a magnificent furnished Twenty-Sixth street studio, where White often visited her.

His wife, one of the New York hostesses, was deeply interested in education, and she had a fine work. Of Mrs. Carter, less is known. She is said to have been young and beautiful. She had numerous acquaintances, too, in theatrical circles.

White seems to have sent for her on Thursday night to come to the house, where he was on the verge of a breakdown from heavy drinking and nervousness. She killed herself in a room at the house while F. L. Cleveland, a master, was caring for White in the latter's apartment.

White expected his wife home soon, but did not look for her yesterday. There was a painful scene on her arrival.

TIED OF HUSBAND.

And So Mrs. Keroyshi Gave Him a Dose of Arsenic.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 21.—Because Frank Keroyshi, aged 40 years, refused to obey his wife's order to leave her, she poisoned him with arsenic, according to officials of the coroner's office. The widow, together with her sister's husband, Joseph Durrock, were arrested Thursday, charged with the crime.

When the woman came to this country from Poland last December, both her husband and Durrock were in prison, serving a sentence of 10 months for larceny. She went to friends and afterward convinced the idea, the police say, that she would be happier with Durrock than she could be with her husband.

After the men were released from prison, the trio went to live together. The wife commanded the husband to leave, but he refused. She offered him $50 if he would go, but still he declined. Finally, the officials of the coroner's office say, his wife was seen to put something in a drink of whiskey which her husband drank. Keroyshi became ill, told his friends that his wife had threatened to poison him and died in three days.

A city chemist found enough arsenic in his viscera to kill 10 men.

EZRA AND OX CART GO 3000 MILES TO PRESIDENT

Meeker, Rich Farmer of 76, Amaze Broadway, Wants President Roosevelt to Preserve the Oregon Trail.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Ezra Meeker and his ox cart are on their way here today. Ezra is coming to see the president, if he can, and to tell him, if he saw him, that "it would be a mighty good thing, I'm telling you, for you, Mr. President, to have the government preserve the old trail across the country."

It is not probable that Ezra will see Mr. Roosevelt, except, perchance, from afar.

All Broadway gaped in wonder and curiosity when Meeker's "prairie schooner," drawn by two slowly moving oxen and preceded by an aged man with a flowing white beard, completed its journey of 18 months across the continent by marching the length of that street to South Ferry in New York.

Seldom have the denizens of the great White Way witnessed such a unique and picturesque sight as was presented by the old wagon looking much like a ghost of former days, as it passed between the rows of tall buildings and surrounded on every side by whizzing automobiles and all of the evidences of modern civilization.

The progress of the prairie schooner throughout the length of the street was heralded by a crowd of boys and men, many of whom had doubtless never before seen a yoke of oxen, and on every block it passed business stopped temporarily and crowds lined the sidewalks.

Meeker for the past year and a half has been traversing the old Oregon trail from Puget Sound, Wash. He is a man of wealth and 70 years old. The last time he rode the Oregon trail was in 1850, when as a young man he migrated to the west from his home in Ohio.

His purpose in making the trip to the east is to arouse public sentiment in favor of a bill, which he will have introduced in Congress at its next session, to build a permanent concrete road along the route of the Oregon trail, in commemoration of the pioneers who constituted the advance guard of civilization to the west and who traversed the trail.

LIPTON ON WAY TO

CONSUL ON RACE

Will Use Best Endeavors to Have the New Rules of the New York Yacht Club Govern.

London, Eng., Sept. 21.—Sir Thomas Lipton, sailed for Liverpool Thursday for New York on the liner Baltic. When he arrives he will have a consultation with the officials of the New York Yacht club regarding his challenge for a race for the America's cup and the conditions under which it will be sailed.

Sir Thomas hopes that an agreement will be made to race under the new rules of the club, and that the "freak" type will not be insisted upon in the boat that is to meet the fourth Shamrock.

Members of the Royal Irish Yacht club deplore the reported dissension in the New York Yacht club as to whether America should race Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger with a freak or a real boat of presidential caliber.

The plans provided for a "camping trip," but everyone who knows northeastern Louisiana knows that the cane brakes shelter game worthy of a hunter of presidential caliber. Those who will have the good fortune to make pleasant the president's camp expect that the monotony of camp life will occasionally be broken by a hunt.

While the details of the trip have not been thoroughly worked out, the main features were announced by Secretary Lock yesterday. The President will leave Oyster Bay for Washington Yacht Wednesday, and on the following Sunday will start on his western and southern speaking tour.

At Memphis, Tenn., on Oct. 4, the speaking program will be interrupted and the President will start for the camping grounds. He will break camp Oct. 21, going directly to Victorburg, Miss., to make his promised speech there. The return to Washington will, immediately after, be begun and the White House will be reached in the afternoon of Oct. 23.

1,020,000 SETTLERS ON LAND ARE NEEDED IN 3 STATES

Places Also Open for 341,845 Men, Women and Children.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—In a report of the work of the division of information of the bureau of immigration, made to Secretary Straus of the department of commerce and labor, Chief T. V. Powderly points out that reports from governors of states and other officials show that 250,000 men, women and children can be employed at from $3 per week to $3.50 per day; from individual employers, reports show places exist for 1,305 aliens at $1.25 to $3 per day; from commissioners of labor and state boards of agriculture places exist for 84,150 men at $18 a month to $2 per day.

Commissioners of agriculture in three states say that 1,020,000 settlers on land are needed, and Chief Powderly is now seeking more exact information as to kind of work, house rent, and the like. He has named Inspector Philip Bowen to take charge of the work of the division in New York.

Agents with offices in several large centers are recommended and also agents to travel on shipboard and advise immigrants where to go.

THE FAIR that is SURE to ELEVATE FARMING

PRESIDENT WILL CAMP OUT.

Mr. Roosevelt to Hunt Deer and Wildcats in Louisiana Swamp.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 21.—Far from the scene of official routine and free for a little from the details attendant upon the multitudinous responsibilities associated with the office of chief executive, President Roosevelt will enjoy seventeen days in camp. This is to be the nearest approach to a genuine vacation that the president has allowed himself.

Though nominally on his vacation at Oyster Bay, this summer, there have been but few hours in which official business of some sort has not intruded. A physical and mental recreation, as complete as his cares will permit, is now arranged. President Roosevelt will pitch his camp in the northeastern corner of Louisiana, on or about Oct. 5. The exact spot is yet to be determined.

The plans provided for a "camping trip," but everyone who knows northeastern Louisiana knows that the cane brakes shelter game worthy of a hunter of presidential caliber. Those who will have the good fortune to make pleasant the president's camp expect that the monotony of camp life will occasionally be broken by a hunt.

ONE SEAMAN KILLED.

Fell Through Hatchway on Battleship New Jersey.

Boston, Sept. 21.—The battleship New Jersey arrived here yesterday afternoon bringing the body of an ordinary seaman, Charles Frank Gehrig of New York, who was killed Thursday night by falling through the hatchway on the upper deck. The transfer of the body and six sick men to the hospital started the rumor of an explosion, but this is denied.

ROOT GETTING READY.

Secretary in Washington Preparing for Mexican Trip.
